The Sandra Davison Live and Silent Auctions

As one of the most generous supporters of children everywhere, the original designer of almost every fundraising auction in the Limestone District School Board, and a leader of more projects and organizations than can be named, the late Sandra Davison was our champion. These events have been named in her honour.

Silent and Live Auction Payment Options

You may pay by cash, cheque, credit card or debit card. Please consider paying for your items early in the evening and picking them up when you are ready to leave, avoiding last-minute line-ups.

Live Auction

L-1 A Taste of the World

It's Saturday night. Time to slip into your best cocktail-party outfit and invite 9 guests to your home for Pan Chancho's catered World Tour Cocktail Party. There's Greek Spanakopita, Chinese Shiitake Potstickers with ginger soy dipping sauce, French Duck Brioche with onion orange marmalade and Mexican Chorizo Empanadas, just to name a delectable few. A basket full of Portuguese wine donated by Frontenac Public School should keep the party hopping well into the night. And when the fun is over, reminisce about the good times and good food by making a selection of recipes from the Chez Piggy and Pan Chancho cookbooks (five copies of each), donated by J.E. Horton, Perth Road and Frontenac Public Schools, plus receive a bound collection of recipes put together by the J.E. Horton Public School community.

L-2 What Not to Wear

How would you like to pick out a whole new wardrobe from some of Kingston's top fashion stores, like Blueprint, Agent 99, Three Boutique, and Heel Boy? Are the choices too overwhelming? Not sure which outfit looks best? Then you'll be happy to have Cyndy Gibson, your very own fashion consultant along for your day of shopping. Ready for a new hairdo to top off the look? The professionals at FAB want to give your hair a cut and colour treatment. And not to forget the rest of you, Goodlife is offering 5 personal training sessions at their downtown location. Just imagine the new you.

L-3 All That Sparkles

Signature Jeweller of the Crystal Ball, Paul-Randolph Jewellers wants to put some sparkle on your ears with these exquisite diamond earrings in 14kt white gold. From Kingston's one of a kind jewellery store you can expect the highest quality and craftsmanship.

L-4 Imagine A Week Away

Plan your vacation at either the Vistana Beach Club, Jensen Beach, FL or the Vistana Orlando - Fountains Villa, Orlando, FL or trade for another RCI Property. This seven day, six night vacation must be booked and used prior to June 1, 2012 (property location and dates are based on availability). This is a prime-time (red) accommodation for you and your family or friends. It is a two bedroom, fully equipped villa, that sleeps 4-6 people. Arrangements must be made through Susan Creasy (613-384-1880 or susan@susancreasy.ca).

C-49 Art by Tammy Shane

Landscapes, trees and birds are what captivate artist Tammy Shane and inspire her to create her paintings. For the Crystal Ball, Tammy has donated three 8x8 songbird prints on stretched canvas and a gift certificate towards the purchase of another piece, including a work commissioned by you.

C-50 Be Good to the Earth...Be Good to Yourself

Lancaster Drive Public School has put together a wooden Garden of Eden basket full of eco-friendly products for you to enjoy. Travel mugs, fair trade coffee, organic teas, re-usable fruit and vegetable keepers, handmade cotton dish cloths for your kitchen. Jason body wash and Kiss My Face soap for your body. A collapsable canvas basket, shopping bag and organic cleaning wipes for the home and shopping. And a squirrel-proof bird feeder for your garden.

C-51 Floral Arrangement

Decorate with a fresh bouquet of flowers using your gift certificate at LSP Florists.

Enjoy a night in a fireplace or jacuzzi room at the gorgeously decorated and historic Gananoque Inn & Spa. How can you not enjoy yourself looking out over the St. Lawrence River and 1000 Islands while luxuriating in the spa? Breakfast is included as well as a gift certificate towards dinner.

C-55 Silpada Sterling Silver Jewellery

Use your gift certificate towards the purchase of a stunning piece of jewellery.

C-56 Plan Your Next Getaway

Cleland Travel in Napanee is providing a gift certificate towards your next travel plans. They've also included a handy Maritime travel bag and mug.

C-57 A Tumbling Good Time

Take one of your school's classes to Kingston Gymnastics in the winter for a great time of jumping, swinging and balancing, and take another one in the spring. Happiness is ...

C-43 Traeger BBQ Rental

Here's a chance to find out what all the fuss is about. Atkinson Home Building Centre will rent you a Traeger Pellet Grill for 3 days, plus a bag of pellets, so that you can discover why these grills are better than conventional barbecues. They can perform 6 different functions: grill, smoke, bake, braise, roast and barbecue. Make everything from steak, prime rib, pizza and even cookies and biscuits on your Traeger. Fired by compact wood pellets made from 100% hardwood sawdust that comes in different types like hickory and cherry, flavour is added to your food as it cooks.

C-44 Paradise in your Backyard

If your garden needs a little makeover, then Green Space Design can help. The professionals will provide you an hour of consultation with regards to horticulture, interior design, landscape design, or eco-friendly products. Make sure to include your two new Muskoka chairs, donated by Land O' Lakes and Hinchinbrooke Public Schools, in your plans.

C-45 Kingston Nurseries

Spruce up your garden by using your gift certificate for consultation or nursery items from Kingston Nurseries.

C-46 Weekend Retreat for 2

Check in at the Radisson in downtown Kingston by the harbor and spend a weekend taking in all that Kingston has to offer, whether it be shopping, taking in a show or recreating, it's all at your doorstep. Enjoy breakfast at the hotel's very own highly acclaimed AquaTerra Restaubistro headed by Chef Clark Day. Whether you choose the eggs benedict, the pancakes or any of the other scrumptious meals, you will be energized for a day in Kingston.

C-47 Nicole Tarasick's Specially-Designed Pillow

Give your sofa that wow factor with one of graphic artist Nicole Tarasick's Canadiana pillows. The pillow has feather fill and measures 20" x 20".

C-48 It Glitters, and It's Gold!

If you're looking for a unique piece of jewellery, Sterling has a great selection and friendly staff. The piece we have here tonight is made of a white gold chain and a clear quartz pendant.

L-5 Western Cut's Dinner for 30

All you have to do is write the guest list! Gather up a party of 30 at your house and let the professionals at Western Cut cater a southern style barbecue dinner. Enjoy scrumptious barbecued meats like beer chicken, or smokehouse ribs; salads such as roasted pear, spinach and candied pecan, or black bean, pepper and corn, or traditional caesar. And for dessert sample a piece of fruit pie, cookies, brownies or fresh fruit.

While you dine, you and your guests will enjoy entertainment by accomplished singer and songwriter Kevin Head. Even the décor for your party will be taken care of with a stunning floral arrangement from LSP Florist.

Dinner available Sunday-Thursday

L-6 Abrams Brothers in Performance

John, James and Elijah are going to set your feet a tapping and bring a smile to your face. The band members have been performing for a decade and in their latest album, Northern Redemption, have moved from the music of their roots to their own personal sound, a mix of bluegrass, country and folk rock. Their performance will take place at a venue of your choice and must be scheduled on a date agreed upon by all parties.

L-7 Pellet Grill & Dinner for 8

Here's a chance to trade in your barbecue for a Traeger Wood Pellet Grill, donated by Atkinson Home Building Centre. What makes Traeger Grills special is that they can do much more than a conventional barbecue; in fact they can perform six different functions: grill, smoke, bake, braise, roast and barbecue. Make everything from steak, prime rib, pizza and even cookies and biscuits on your Traeger. Fired by compact wood pellets made from 100% hardwood sawdust that comes in different types like hickory and cherry, flavour is added to your food as it cooks.

The best part is that Traegers are easy to use. But don't even worry about reading the instruction manual; let a Traeger professional grill master fire it up for you in your own backyard. And since the grill's hot, why not let the pro barbecue dinner for 8 in the process? Keep your guests merry with a selection of fine wines, courtesy of Catarauqui Woods Public School. After a delicious dinner, as the grill cools down, pull out a tray of goodies from Cards' Bakery to cap off a perfect night.

Traeger pro can be scheduled between June 1-September 30, 2012.

L-8 Refashion Your Home

Does your home need some sprucing up? Do you turn green with envy when you look through those home improvement magazines? Deep down you know they've probably had professional help. Well, now you can too! Let interior designer, Jen Storey help you reorganize your home. Then you'll know exactly which window or door you want Aaben to replace, decide where to place your new Dwell table made from reclaimed wood and iron, and where to hang Beth Ten Hove's original painting, "Reflections at Sunset." Not to mention locating the perfect place to spotlight your one-of-a-kind, hand-crafted Stinson wooden bowl. And for all of those fix-it jobs you've been meaning to get to, give the list to Pat Powers and have the Handy Man for a Day take care of them. Then the only thing left to do is sit back, admire your new home and relax with your subscription to Hello!Canada for of the latest celebrity news and fashion.

L-9 A Day in the Studio

And when it is time to go home, tuck your new camera away in a Lowepro Geneva pouch, all courtesy of Henry's.

L-12 Painting by Jane Colden

Beginning as a textile artist, Jane Colden changed to painting after her children were born. She has not looked back, finding the process of painting freeing, and yet still she incorporates her knowledge of weaving and fibre into the patterns, colour and texture of her paintings. In "The Visit" Jane continues her series "Roots and Blossoms" in which she studies still life through colour to create a balance and an atmosphere within the painting. The result is a joyful and welcoming work of art. This piece is mixed media measuring 30" x 40".

L-13 "Life Line..." by Heather Haynes

Heather Haynes is an international artist, hailing from Kingston, Ontario, who now works from her studio on Lake Opinicon. Heather's paintings develop through an automatic process, in which she leaves the bulk of what is translated onto the canvas to chance. Her current work is inspired by her travels to Africa, meeting the native peoples, and learning as much as she can about life, love and "being" from them. She is drawn to the grounded way of life she encountered while in Uganda, Tanzania, Rwanda and the Congo. Heather strives to live a life of love and compassion, which she feels is an important part of her success as a person and artist. Growing up, Heather attended schools in the Limestone District School area. "Life Line..." is mixed media on canvas.

L-14 Cobble Beach Golf and Accommodation

Rated one of the world's top 10 best new courses in 2007 by Travel & Leisure Golf Magazine, and Ontario's best new course by Ontario Golf Magazine, Cobble Beach not only has a terrific 18-hole course, but the gorgeous shores of Georgian Bay to recommend it as a dream destination. A-34 Photos by Nicolette McGraw

Local artist Nicolette McGraw uses her magic touch to create unconventional photos of flora and fauna. Colour and light are two of Nicolette's favourite things in photography. She purposely photographed a single Gerber flower against a plain white background to enhance the colour and the shape of the flower. She chose a single stem to show off the Gerber's character. Gerber's whimsically shaped stems make her smile and their vibrant colours are always fun to photograph. Nicole says that frogs are fun to hunt for and watch, but not always easy to find, let alone photograph. The frog in the photo is her daughter's ceramic one. Nicolette likes to look around her house for interesting shapes and colours to photograph. Bright days are always her favourite, so she can use the natural light, eliminating any flash glare. The plain bright background really punches the frog into view.
