ASSOCIATE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

APRIL 17, 2019

i) Ministry Updates

There are no new special education Ministry updates to share.

ii) SEAC Goal Setting (2014)

The Limestone District School Board SEAC engaged in a goal setting process over the 2014-2015 school year. This process resulted in a framework which identified three goals: Advocacy as Capacity Building; Student Focus-Student Achievement and; Parent and Community Engagement. These goals require review as SEAC embarks on a new four-year term.

iii) Resignation of Member at Large

Stephanie Shunk has regrettably resigned as Member at Large on SEAC, effective immediately. The Board will proceed with filling this position as soon as possible.

iv) Service Animals in Schools-Public Consultation

The Ministry of Education is now beginning a public consultation on a draft Policy/Program Memorandum (PPM) School Board Policies on Service Animals. You may access the draft PPM and survey and provide online feedback by accessing the following link: www.ontario.ca/page/consultation-service-animals-schools. This consultation will be open until May 4, 2019.

Report Prepared By: Alison McDonnell, Associate Superintendent of Education, Learning for All
