Extended French Program

Thank you for your interest in the Extended French Immersion Program. This program could be a good placement for your child if he/she is highly motivated, has a positive attitude towards the French language and culture and a willingness to explore new opportunities.

Learning a second language strengthens students' ability to communicate and participate effectively in the workplace and the global community.
(OMLTA: Languages for Life)

Parents/Guardians and students are invited to attend the Extended French Immersion Program Information Session held on:

Tuesday, February 26, 2019 at the following locations:

Harrowsmith Public School - 6:00 p.m. 613-372-2026

Module de l'Acadie - 6:00 p.m. 613-389-0091

Module Vanier - 6:00 p.m. 613-544-7698

School staff will make a presentation regarding the Extended French Immersion Program and can answer questions about the program and school at that time.

Information and application packages can be downloaded from the Choices at Seven website: https://www.limestone.on.ca/programming/choices_at_7 or from the LDSB Website under Programming (scroll down to Choices at 7) after February 5, 2019 or can be picked up at the school on the information night.

Schools accept applications to the Extended French Program on an ongoing basis. Parents are asked, where possible, to submit the application form along with the parent checklist, a copy of the most recent report card, and a copy of the current IEP (if applicable) by Friday, April 26, 2019 in order to assist with school organization.

Please complete the enclosed application forms and return them with the supporting documentation to the appropriate school.

Participation in this program is by choice and therefore transportation for the program is the responsibility of the parent. Where home location and bus space allows, transportation on existing bus routes will be accommodated. The use of some existing bus routes may mean that the student will arrive late and leave early. This could result in the student missing up to an hour of class time per day. Parents may wish to consult with the school or the transportation department for more information. The Tri-Board Student Transportation Services can be contacted at 1-866-569-6638.
